

Proceedings of NSS Camp

As per the requirement of course curriculum of first year students of B.Sc. Agriculture to educate them about the motto of National Social Services to uplift the society by keeping the environment healthy and clean to avoid contamination responsible for human health hazards, plantation more and more to check global warming and climate change and to remove plastic wares to minimize Chloro Floro Carbon to protect the Ozone layer.

For the purpose an ideal place Devdham Jodhpuria a famous temple of lord Devnarayan, 25 km away from DKNMU was selected where many pilgrims use to come from different parts of the state hence pollution takes place.

School of Agricultural Sciences

---

The programme of the day was mapped from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM. A total of 52 students with faculties of SOAS left to the destination by university bus with the green signal given by Pro- Vice Chancellor Professor Manimala Puri and Dean SOAS, Professor R. L. Suwalka.

After arrival at Dev Dham at 9.50 am, the students were divided in four groups entrusted the tasks of tree plantation, collection of plastic ware, cleaning of temple premises and eradication of parthinium under the guidance of faculty in charges. Later the collected plastic ware and parthnium were dumped in a pit aside temple premises and total twenty plants namely Ashoka, boganbilia, Neem, Siris, Drumstick and Mango were planted by the students then handed over to working committee of temple for future care and maintenance.

School of Agricultural Sciences

---

The working committee of the temple Jodhpuria Dham actively involved itself in this holy work of society and extended full support to the students of our university.

At the end of the activities a group discussion/interaction was held among the student in presence of faculty members pertaining to the role of NSS and youth especially student how he/she can be the best resource of the nation to motivate our society to mitigate the urgent need may be of environmental hazards or social demerits.

The activities were organized by Mr. Hutesh Sharma and Dr. Pradeep Gupta, HoD in collaboration with whole faculty and students. At the last Dr. Suwalka, Dean extended thanks to Pro- Vice Chancellor Professor Manimala Puri for her kind approval to organize this programme, working committee of the temple for cooperation, organizers, faculties and students for their successful conduct of event.

Dean

Dr. R. L. Suwalka
SOAS, DKNMU

Coordinator NSS

Hutesh Kumar Sharma
SOAS, DKNMU